

HOW COVID-19 WILL AFFECT YOUR SEASON

Due to the global pandemic, returning to play will look a bit different this year. Based on what we know now, here is what you might expect for the 2020/2021 season.

AT TOURNAMENTS

- Less spectators permitted in facilities
- Less courts for more social distancing
- On-site temperature checks & sanitizing
- Mask requirements for spectators
- Staggered arrivals/departures
- Stricter guidelines on outside food, drinks, chairs, etc.
- Little to no contact with other team, and own team huddles, etc. limited.
- More waivers and liability releases
- More live stream/watch remotely options

AT PRACTICES

- No spectators permitted
- Number of athletes in gym decreased
- Pre and post-practice protocol (see protocol flyer)
- Mask requirements for spectators
- Staggered arrivals/departures—in one way, out another way
- Updated liability releases

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Stay home if you are sick or have been around anyone sick
- Sanitize frequently
- Wear masks (spectators always; players: while off the court)
- Do not allow child to share any equipment (bottles, towels, etc.)
- Stay calm, be smart, and be respectful of those around you
